1 Garage

Our garage combines both functionality and aesthetics. It is designed with the needs of our own classic motor car collection in mind, offering a perfect balance of organization and convenience.

On the ground floor, the garage is organized in different zones set up for specific tasks, ensuring everything is in its place. There are a generous space for maintenance and a section for storing spare parts and tools, keeping our operations streamlined. With ample vertical space, we use a hydraulic lift to work efficiently on the undercarriage of cars. The high ceiling also contributes to a sense of openness, helping create a comfortable work environment.

Climate control is a key feature of our setup, keeping the garage dry and warm year-round. With temperature carefully managed, this environment is ideal for preserving the quality of our cars. Energy-efficient lighting illuminates the entire space, highlighting key areas like the workbenches and the lift. This not only provides functional lighting but also enhances the garage's clean, polished look.

Adding a touch of hospitality, on the first floor, the garage features a lounge area for meeting visitors, clients and friends to discuss projects and services. Comfortable seating, a sleek coffee table, and a small refreshment station create a welcoming atmosphere to enjoy the company of fellow enthusiasts. Beside the lounge, there are a library and an office for all administrative tasks. Although the business is run paperless, we store here original car documentation and books.

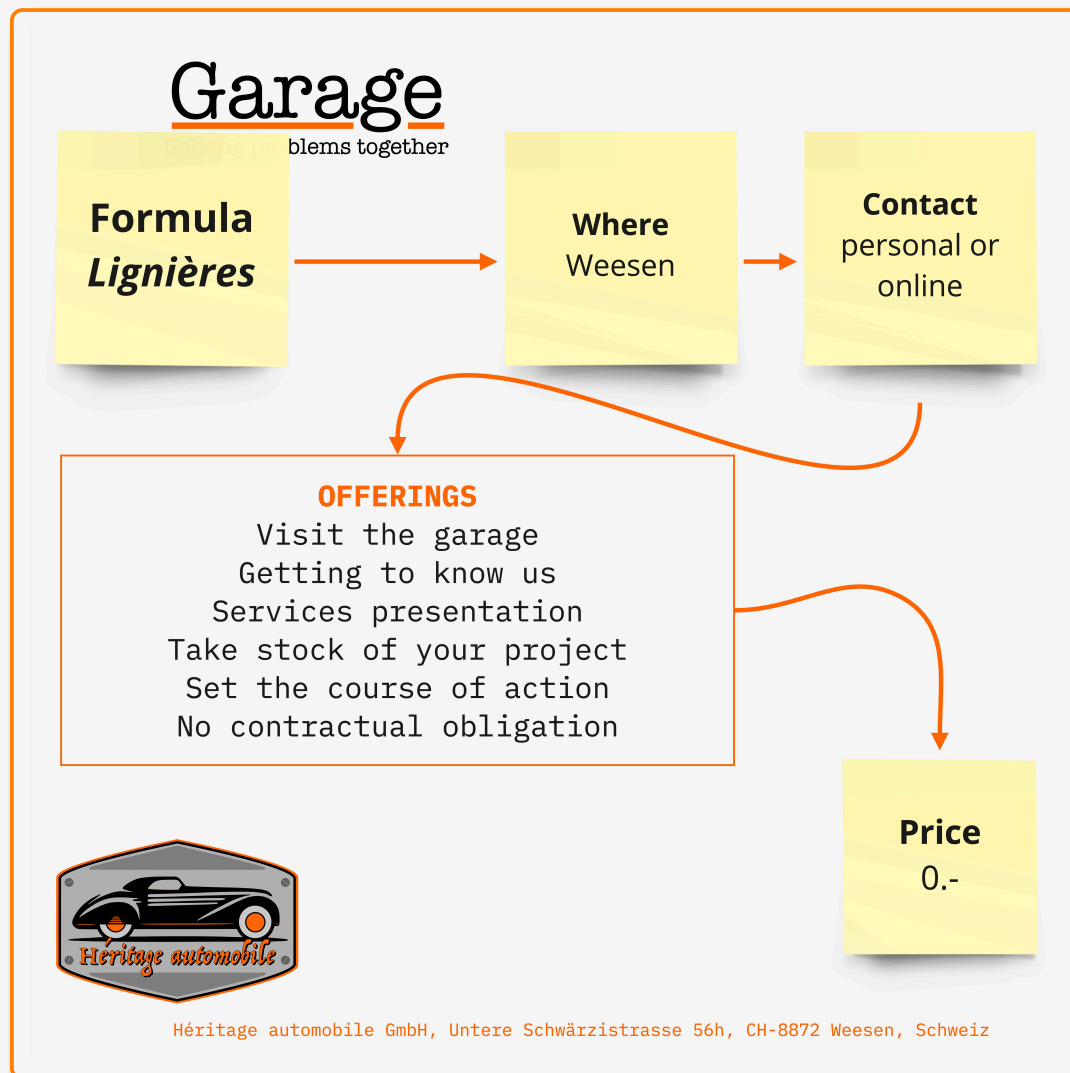

Aesthetically, the garage is a reflection of our passion for classic motor cars. Walls are adorned with automotive artwork and vintage memorabilia, giving the place a personal touch. With every detail carefully considered, our garage serves as both a practical workshop and a place to celebrate classic motor cars.

1.1 Formula Lignières

All our services are offered in simple, transparent formulas at competitive and attractive prices. General terms and conditions, described in a separate document, apply to all formulas.

The formula Lignières consists simply of an initial contact to get to know each other and to take stock of your projects and goals. It is free and without contractual obligation. This initial contact can take place in our lounge in Weesen or online. We speak English, French, and German. We are looking forward to meeting you.

2 Consulting

Navigating the world of collectible cars can be overwhelming and time-consuming, especially with so many factors to consider. That is where our expert consulting service comes in. We provide personalized guidance to help you make informed, confident decisions when purchasing your classic motor car. Whether you are a first-time buyer or a seasoned enthusiast looking to expand your collection, we help you find the right car that fits your taste, investment goals, and budget.

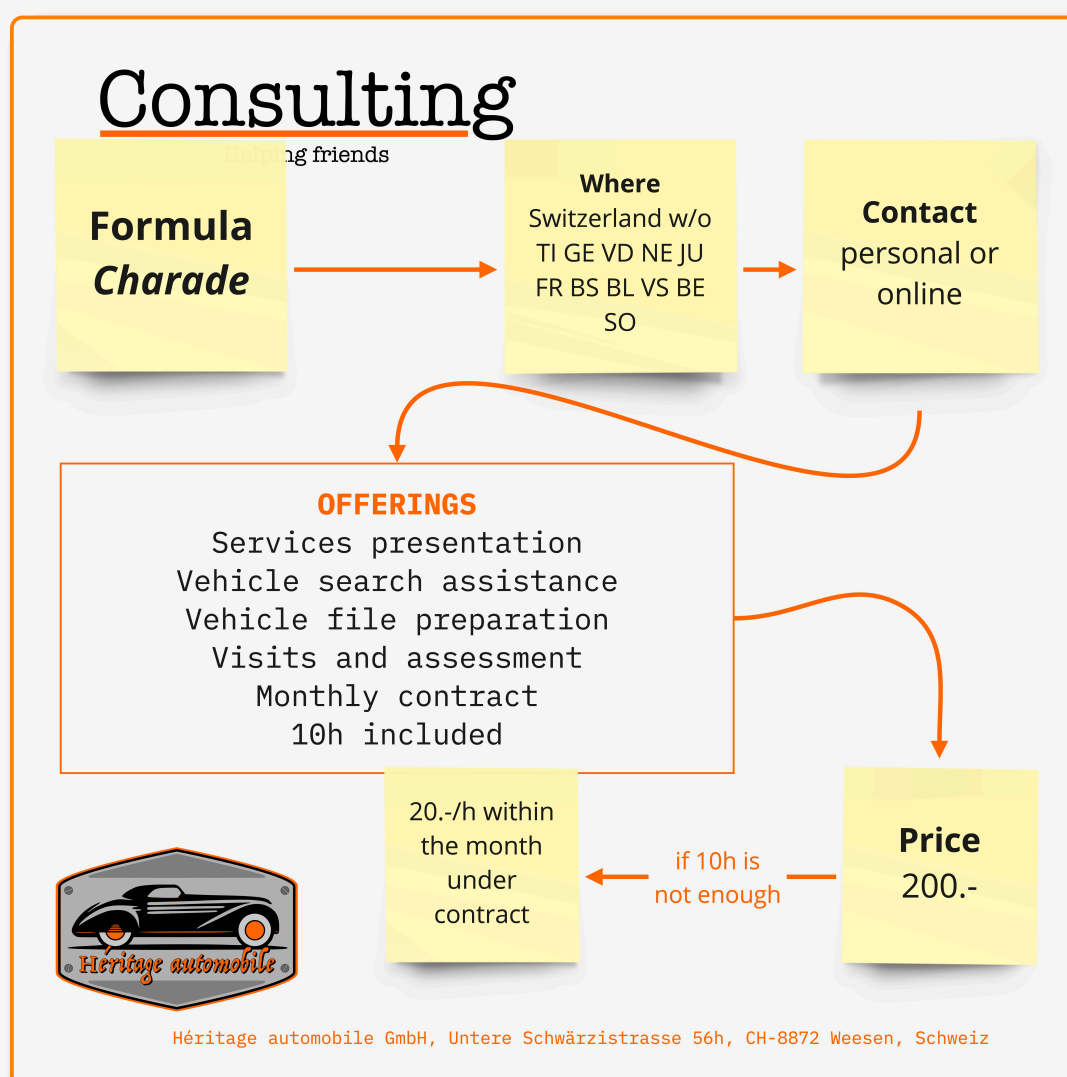

The basic rule is quite simple: never buy a car alone. You always should be with somebody to inspect both the car and the seller. Four eyes, four ears, two noses, and two mouths are the minimum equipment to buy a classic motor car.

Services and prices

Our consulting service covers every step of the buying process, from identifying the most desirable models to visiting dealerships, conducting thorough inspections and negotiating prices. We personally accompany prospective buyers to the dealerships or auctions, offering hands-on assistance during inspections and negotiations.

3 Valuation

Finding the right value of a collectible car is no rocket science, it is sometimes more sorcery than analysis. Anyway, with or without the gods, there is a market outside with demand and supply, and therefore with a market price. Accurately assessing the value of a collectible car requires a deep understanding of the market and the unique qualities that contribute to a car's value, whether it is rarity, condition, provenance, or historical significance.

Our valuation service offers a comprehensive analysis, ensuring that you have a precise and reliable estimate of your vehicle's value. Whether you are looking to buy, sell, insure, or simply assess your car's value for personal
